

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS.

Men of Pennsylvania University Claim That Title.

UNBROKEN RECORD OF VICTORIES.

They Easily Defeat Harvard by a Score of 18 to 4, and Will Now Issue a Formal Challenge to Yale—Cornell Defeats Lehigh.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Twenty thousand people saw Pennsylvania defeat Harvard on the local college grounds yesterday. It was the last game of the season for the two teams and the first big Thanksgiving Day contest that Philadelphia has ever had. Not a defeat has marred the record of Pennsylvania during the entire football year. Pennsylvania's victory by an 18 to 4 score was made by hard, clean football. There were none of the objectionable features so often manifested in the big games. The feeling between the colleges is very friendly, and although every man on the rival eleven played to the full extent of his ability, no slugging nor any unnecessary roughness were in evidence during the match.

So hard and fast was the play that five of the Cambridge men were compelled to leave the field. Charley Brewer wrenched his weak ankle in the first half, and Harvard was without the services of her best kicker. Emmons' leg was also strained, and he was compelled to go to the side lines. The other injured players were Hallowell, Wheeler and Fairchild. The loss of these men naturally handicapped the Harvard, but nevertheless they put up a most stubborn game. Pennsylvania's team showed by far the better training, and, as was the case in the match with Princeton, the eleven remained intact throughout the contest.

To Brooke belongs the great credit of Pennsylvania's victory. His punting was the finest ever seen in a football match, and neither Hayes nor Charley Brewer were in the same class with him. Hayes' punting was very poor, and one of his kicks was responsible for a touchdown. All of the Harvard backs fumbled more or less, Hayes and Whitmore especially being at fault in this respect.

Osgood did the best running for the Quakers. Try as they did, Harvard could not break up the magnificent interference of the Quakers. The two guards, Woodruff and Wharton, would plunge into the line, opening up the tackles, and protected by Knipe, Colbert and Williams. Osgood would go through for large gains. The Harvard interference was easily broken up by the fierce tackling of Wharton. Woodruff, Minds and Wagonhurst.

Waters was the star player for Harvard. He took charge of the team after Captain Emmons was disabled, and was seen to advantage in every play. He got down the field quicker than the ends on kicks and tackled hard and sure. His work in the interference was also the best seen in the game made by him in the line.

Harvard plainly exhibited the effects of her rough usage at the hands of Yale on Saturday last. Their play was slow in comparison with that of the Quakers. Arthur Brewer put up a very plucky game for Harvard at right end. He was limping when he came on the field. Several times after a scrimmage, when the mass of players was untangled, he would be found lying still at the bottom of the heap, his face writhed in agony. A vigorous rubbing on the part of the attendants and trainers would bring him around, and once more he would plunge into the thick of the fight.

Hallowell, the left tackle of the Harvard team, who was so badly injured in the Yale game was carried from the field yesterday on a stretcher. He was in no condition to play at the start, and it was a mistake for Emmons to put him on the team. Pennsylvania chose his position for a number of their openings, and they would drive their tandem interference through him at such a rapid rate that he was soon scarcely able to stand on his feet. Wheeler, who took his place, played the better game of the two.

It was reported after the game that Pennsylvania would issue a challenge to Yale for a match on Dec. 8. It is known that Hinkley will not accept such a proposition, but Pennsylvania will have shown that she has done all in her power to get on a match with the blue, and that by virtue of her unbroken string of victories she is entitled to the championship of the gridiron field.

CORNELL DEFEATS LEHIGH.

The Game Ends in a Dispute, Lehigh Leaving the Field.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Fully 3,500 people shivered, danced and yelled themselves hoarse last evening at the football game between Cornell and their old time rivals from Lehigh. The game was sharply contested from start to finish, and ended in a dispute over what the Cornell men claimed to be a fair touchdown by Starbuck. The Ithaca eleven were awarded the victory by a score of 10 to 6, however. Lehigh's supporters said that Cornell did not win the second touchdown and the team left the field, refusing to play any further when Referee Young declared the touchdown a legitimate one.

In the latter part of the second half Lehigh had the ball on Cornell's ten yard line. Harrison fumbled and the referee, thinking the ball was down, blew the whistle. However, Starbuck caught the ball before it touched the ground, rushed the length of the field and placed it between Lehigh's goal posts. Lehigh claimed that the referee, by blowing his whistle, thus called a down and should not have allowed the touchdown.

An Enthusiastic Slugging Match.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Nothing short of the slaughter of the Armenians is comparable to the football game for the championship of Washington between Georgetown university and the Columbia Athletic club. The slugging was enthusiastic and continuous until in the second half, both teams, with their substitutes, engaged in a general fight, which the police had to stop. Spectators came in and there was a general melee. Georgetown had the worst of the casualties, five of their team being disabled. Eahen, quarterback of Columbia, had a broken shoulder bone; Carmody, captain and halfback of Georgetown, had a collar bone broken and a knee wrenched. Neither team scored in the first half, and Columbia won in the second by a score of 20 to 0.

Michigan Defeats Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The football teams of the Universities of Michigan and Chicago struggled for glory yesterday on a slippery field. Two hours before the play began a driving sleet storm opened, and when the men lined up the grounds were better fitted for skating rink purposes than to serve as a gridiron. But notwithstanding the discouraging weather the grand stand and outfield were packed with yelling collegians, and the boxes and carriage room were well filled with society people. Michigan won by a score of 6 to 4.

Virginia Defeats North Carolina.

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.—An Odessa dispatch in favor of the University of Virginia. About 6,000 people saw the contest between this team and the one from the University of North Carolina. The score: Virginia, 34; North Carolina, 0.

CZAROWITZ REPORTED DEAD.

Grand Duke George, Second Son of the Late Czar Alexander.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—An Odessa dispatch to The Daily News says it is rumored that Grand Duke George, the czarowitz, died on Sunday last. No official confirmation of the rumor has been received. The report, however, has thrown the city into a state of gloom.

Grand Duke George is the second son of the late czar and was born at Tsarskoe-Selo April 27, 1871.

He has long been a sufferer from lung disease, and for two years past has been compelled by his physicians to reside in the Caucasus, where he made his home at Abastumen. Report has it that he some time ago married the daughter of a minor official, and that the marriage was recognized by the late czar. When Czar Alexander's illness became threatening Grand Duke George was summoned from the Caucasus. He proceeded to Spala and accompanied his father to Livadia. After the death of the czar he went with the remains as far as Sebastopol, where he left the imperial family and returned to Abastumen, the condition of his health being such as to make it impossible for him to go to St. Petersburg to attend the funeral. Shortly after the ascension of Czar Nicholas his majesty issued a ukase proclaiming Grand Duke George czarowitz.

GRAND DUKE GEORGE.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

It Must Continue Until China Formally Sues for Peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—While the Japanese legation has received no official confirmation of the dispatches indicating that the mission of Mr. Dettling, on behalf of the Chinese, to Japan has been a failure, the disposition there is to regard the information as authentic. The time, they say, has passed when the differences existing between the two nations can be settled by the customs authorities, as if it were a matter of mere business routine, and they declare that if China really desires to bring about peace through negotiations it must be done through a regularly accredited envoy from the emperor of China to the emperor of Japan. In the meantime, and until China comes to realize that this is the only condition under which peace negotiations can proceed, the war must go on.

The Japanese authorities here do not regard with favor the reports of the interference of the European powers. They take the position that so far Japan has done nothing which could justify the interference of the foreign powers, and intimate that it will be time enough for their interposition when Japan shall really make some demand that will be unreasonable.

This characterization applies only to the European powers. There is no disposition to scout the proposition of the United States to mediate. On the contrary it is suggested at the legation that it would be entirely satisfactory to have the preliminaries of any peace negotiations conducted by the American ministers to Japan and China.

SECRETARY SMITH'S REPORT.

He Urges That the Indians be Permitted to Keep Their Lands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The annual report of Secretary Hoke Smith, of the interior department, deals largely with Indian affairs, and he presents some practical suggestions for the development and civilization of the race.

The secretary discusses the subject of education and of allotments of land in several, and urges that the education of the Indians should be for the purpose of fitting them to perform the particular responsibilities most likely to fall to their lot. He presents the possibilities of the reservations as land to be improved and developed, to which the Indians should be taught to apply those modes of agriculture recognized in civil life. Their education should fit them for this work, and they should be led on with the assurance that the government in dealing with this land will treat the Indians with perfect honesty, and make no further effort to trade them out of it for the benefit of those who wish to settle upon it. Let Indians keep their lands.

The report shows that the entire number of pensioners on the rolls June 30, 1894, was 939,344. The estimate for the fiscal year 1896 is $140,669,000. The number of pensioners added to the roll during the year was 39,083; number dropped, 87,951.

The greater part of the cases now pending in the bureau are old cases. Many of them have been pending for years, and had been examined one or more times prior to the present administration. Upon examination it has been found in many instances that proof was not sufficient to sustain a pension. The attention of the applicants having been called to the defect, in some cases efforts had been made to supply the needed testimony.

One of Farmer Kahn's Murderers Hanged.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Nov. 30.—George Centrell, of East Carondelet, was hanged in the jail yard here today for the murder of Fred Kahn, a respectable farmer of East Carondelet, on the night of Aug. 7, 1894. Kahn was murdered on the highway by his wife, Annie Kahn, and George Centrell, a farmhand, and her paramour. Centrell fired several bullets into Kahn from a revolver. Kahn started to run across a field, but was overtaken by Mrs. Kahn, who fired more bullets into him. Beniz still alive the murderers crushed in his skull with a hammer. The guilty pair confessed. Mrs. Kahn is still in jail, and will stand trial, having pleaded not guilty.

Shot While Testifying in Court.

MOUNT STEUBEN, Ky., Nov. 30.—While United States Commissioner Rogers was trying a case against Lee Sturgis, of Effort county, charged with illegally selling whisky, Charles Watkins shot and probably fatally wounded Green Atkins. Watkins became enraged at some testimony Atkins had given, and drawing his pistol fired five shots at him, one of them striking him in the abdomen. The court adjourned immediately without ceremony, while United States Marshal Punch arrested Watkins and lodged him in jail.

An Affecting Scene in Court.

OLATHE, Kan., Nov. 30.—A. W. Little, who has been on trial for his life in the district court of this county since the 12th of this month for the killing of Lawyer B. E. Johnson in Kansas City, Kan., July 19, 1893, was found not guilty by the jury. Judge Berry at once said: "Mr. Little, you are discharged." The defendant was awaiting the verdict surrounded by his wife and three children, with his brother, Judge Little, of Kentucky, near by. Mrs. Little threw her arms about her husband, and with her children cried for joy.

Too Hot for the Station Agent.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 30.—Word reaches here from Fort Smith to the effect that Illinois station, on the Coffeyville branch of the Missouri Pacific railway, in the Indian Territory, was looted by the Cook gang Wednesday night and everything movable carried off. They robbed the station agent, who at once telegraphed his resignation to headquarters and left on the next train for St. Louis. He took charge of the office two days ago, but said times were too warm in the territory for him.

Big Pottery Destroyed by Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—The extensive pottery of the Galloway Terra Cotta company, owned and operated by William Galloway, at 3214-28 Walnut street, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The building was of brick, six stories in height, and was valued at $75,000. It contained a stock worth $25,000, none of which was saved. The origin of the fire is not known, as there was not enough fire in any of the kilns to have started it.

College Closed by Students' Threats.

BERLIN, Nov. 30.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says it learns that the Belgrade (Serbia) university has been closed owing to disorders among the students. Ex-Minister Georgewich is now professor of jurisprudence at the university, and he is very unpopular. The professor feared that the students would put threats of shooting him into execution, and fled to save his life. The closing of the university followed.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

QUIET AT BLUEFIELDS.

The Mosquito Indians Will Unite with Nicaragua's Government.

MR. GOSLING MAY BE RECALLED.

Great Britain's Representative Exceeded His Authority in Calling for a British Warship to Enforce His Demands—The Bluefields Question Settled for All Time.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—It is reported that the Bluefields incident has been settled, Great Britain having, upon the representations of the United States, admitted that Mr. Gosling, the British minister, exceeded his authority in calling for a British warship to proceed to Nicaragua to enforce British demands for indemnity for alleged outrages on British subjects. The affair may lead to his recall.

General Barrios, the special envoy from Nicaragua to Great Britain, has received a dispatch from Managua saying that, according to advices received at the latter place from Bluefields, the convention of the Mosquito Indians has spontaneously resolved upon reincorporation with Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Secretary of State Gresham was shown the Associated Press cable from London, announcing the war turn affairs had taken in Nicaragua. The secretary said nothing had been received from Ambassador Barard in London or Minister Baker in Nicaragua, and that the department had no information from either of these sources. Secretary Gresham said that the attempt to magnify everything in connection with the Bluefields incident was absurd, and he could not imagine who was responsible for some of the ridiculous conclusions which had been drawn from trifling events.

It is understood from other sources that should our state department should feel very much gratified, for they indicate the settlement of the Bluefields question for all time, and the final abandonment of the British protectorate over the Mosquito Indians. This desirable result, moreover, will have been accomplished in strict conformity with the terms of the treaty of Managua between Great Britain and Nicaragua, and so the settlement cannot be regarded as humiliating to Great Britain, or as touching her honor in any way.

If Mr. Barrios, the Nicaraguan agent in London, is correctly advised of the action of the Mosquito Indians all that remains for the British to do is to satisfy themselves that the act of incorporation was voluntarily on the part of the Indians, and that the assembly which adopted the resolutions was thoroughly representative in its character. In such case the British protectorate would lapse by the terms of the treaty. The Mosquito reservation would no longer be known as an autonomous territory, and Nicaragua properly exercise full sovereignty over all lands within her boundaries.

It is true that owing to the mixture with other peoples the original Mosquito have become so blended and crossed that it may be very difficult to establish the fact that the majority have really consented to incorporation with Nicaragua, and it is possible that over such a detail as this the British minister at Managua has been acting with such precipitation as to call for rebuke by his own government.

Admiral Ramsey, of the navy, said today that the Columbia had not yet reported at Bluefields. The Columbia, he anticipated, would not remain long at Bluefields, as her commander was under orders to use his own discretion as to his future movements. Admiral Ramsey said the events related in the Associated Press cables would probably settle all difficulties. He made light of the war scare which has been worked up in connection with the Bluefields incident.

Tidal Wave at Tacoma.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 30.—Amid the roar of an immense tidal wave beating against the shores of Puget sound 600 feet of Tacoma's ocean docks plunged into Commencement bay at 11 o'clock Wednesday night. Half a dozen steamers were tossed about like chips and two were disabled. H. H. Alger's boat house, containing himself, his wife and six children, was turned upside down, spilling the children out of their bunks into the icy water, and it is feared one of his daughters has been drowned. John Hanson, a watchman at the Northern Pacific hydraulic pump, went down in the debris and cannot be found. He was roasted to death or drowned.

Senator Brown Seriously Ill.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—Ex-United States Senator Joseph E. Brown, famous as Georgia's war governor and probably the wealthiest man in the south, is in a critical condition at his home here. The senator has been in feeble health for many months, suffering from a combination of Bright's disease and rheumatism, but his condition has grown worse in the last few days, and is now such as to excite serious apprehension.

THE SEARCH FOR SEELEY.

The New York Bank Thief Believed to be in Canada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The search for Samuel C. Seeley, the fugitive bookkeeper of the Shoe and Leather bank, was continued today. Lawyer Frank Angel, to whom Seeley first confessed his crime, has made a practical admission that his client is in Canada, and with some show of satisfaction added that, according to the revised statutes of the United States, cannot be extradited from that country. It was said that he had received a letter from Seeley postmarked Canada, but the lawyer declined to confirm or deny the truth of the rumor. It has been arranged to have Seeley indicted by the state courts, so that he may be apprehended on a warrant wherever he found.

Frederick R. Baker, his counsel, Herbert L. Ogden, and Lawyer J. L. Bishop, representing the Shoe and Leather bank, met at the Baker office yesterday afternoon. It was said that a further examination of Frederick Baker's effects had been made, but Lawyer Ogden said that nothing connecting Baker with the Shoe and Leather bank had been found. Lawyer Bishop and Mr. Baker refused to be interviewed. It is expected that some light will be thrown on the whole affair this afternoon, when Baker's second box, also in the Park National bank, will be opened. The widow of Seeley's alleged accomplice will be present.

The Bakers refuse to discuss the suits brought against them by the bank, but say that when the proper time comes they will make proper reply through counsel. The bank has asked that a receiver be appointed, and when each of the complaints is filed a lien pendens against each piece of property left by Baker.

Life Saving Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The report of the general superintendent of the life saving station shows that the number of disasters to documented vessels within the field of the operations of the service during the year was 389. There were on board these vessels 4,405 persons, of whom 3,993 were saved and 61 lost. The number of shipwrecked persons, who received succor at the stations was 653, to whom 1,501 days' relief, in the aggregate, was afforded. The estimated value of the vessels involved in the disasters was $6,913,633, and that of their cargoes $2,976,975, making a total value of property imperiled $9,890,608. Of this amount $7,638,170 was saved and $2,252,438 lost. The number of vessels totally lost was 91. In addition there were during the year 214 casualties to small craft, such as sailboats, rowboats, etc., on which there were 467 persons, 460 of whom were saved and 7 lost.

The Demands of the Hovas.

PORT LOUIS, Mauritius, Nov. 30.—The reply of the Hova government to the French ultimatum has been published. Madagascar agrees that the French resident general shall act as the intermediary between the Hova government and the foreign powers. France is to carry out such public works as the Malagasy government judges necessary. The Hovas propose that all disputes between France and themselves shall be settled by a mixed court. Lastly the Hovas demand the delimitation of the French territory around Diego Suarez and the right to import munitions of war.

A Pension Examiner Indicted.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 30.—It has just been learned here that indictments have been found in Howard county, Ia., against Special Pension Examiner E. F. Waite, of this city, for alleged attempted bribery and intimidation of witnesses. Mr. Waite was the moving spirit in investigating the transactions of Van Leuven, whose trial for pension frauds is set for Dec. 11. Mr. Waite declares that the indictments against him are really in the interest of Van Leuven, and that he does not fear the issue.

A Suspected Thief Killed.

WELDON, N. C., Nov. 30.—A negro named Moses Lyon, suspected of being one of the parties who were implicated in the robbery of the postoffice at Garysburg, N. C., some weeks ago, was shot here on Wednesday by Chief of Police Day while attempting to elude arrest. Lyon died yesterday of his wound. The chief had a hearing before a magistrate today and was exonerated.

Irwin Released on Bail.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 30.—George M. Irwin, the discretionary pool manager, arrived yesterday from New York, and was at once taken to Magistrate Gripp's office, where he gave bail for the eight suits against him in the sum of $300 each. His attorney says Irwin cannot be held liable for a cent.

The Jury Failed to Agree.

NORWICH, N. Y., Nov. 30.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Florence Bond Parker, charged with the murder of Alonzo Phillips, at Afton, on Feb. 28, 1893, were discharged after failing to agree. They stood nine to three in favor of acquittal, after deliberating twenty-one hours.

Injured by a Premature Blast.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Premature explosion of a blast at the Bluestone quarry, a few miles above here on the Virginia side, resulted in serious injury to three workmen. R. E. Ferguson will probably die.

Use It In Time.

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat and is in fact, the great enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing, an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucus discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about the eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

THE DAY'S FATALITIES.

Thanksgiving Day Brought Sorrow to Many Happy Homes.

FOOTBALLISTS KILLED BY A TRAIN.

The Engine Crashed Into a Vehicle Containing the Players, Killing Three and Injuring a Dozen—Two Fatally Wounded at a Shooting Match.

SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 30.—This place was the scene of an awful calamity yesterday, resulting in the instant death of three young men, fatal injury to one and serious injuries to twelve others. The Southbridge football eleven was scheduled to play a game with the eleven of the Worcester Polytechnic Institute here, and was passing over the tracks of the New York and New England railroad on the way to the grounds in a large barge when the vehicle was struck by a passenger engine. The wagon was demolished, and its occupants scattered in every direction, three members of the eleven being killed outright. Some were thrown into the air to descend many feet away, maimed and broken, while others went down under the wheels and were ground into a mangled and bleeding mass of flesh, with but slight resemblance to human forms. The train was not brought to a standstill until it had proceeded nearly a quarter of a mile down the track. Following is the list of dead and injured:

Dead—Charles Gauthier, Victor Nelson and Joseph Cook. Fatally Injured—George Street, quarter back of Williams college eleven, who was to referee the game.

Injured—Jake Edwards, head cut; Charles Simpson, leg broken in two places; A. E. Hughes, internal injuries; W. J. Bursaw, badly cut all over body; Bert Clemens, ear split and leg bruised; Frank Morse, slightly injured; James Taylor, head cut and badly cut about body; Henry Belknap, arm broken; Edward Burgin, Leslie Newell and Andrew Taylor, all badly injured.

Slight hopes are entertained for Hughes, Bursaw and Andrew Taylor's recovery. The barge containing the Worcester eleven escaped by a miracle.

FATALITIES AT A SHOOTING MATCH.

Two Men Mortally Wounded by the Explosion of a Gun.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 30.—Two men received probably fatal injuries yesterday at the clay pigeon shoot of the East Side Rod and Gun club. Henry McCauley, a member of the club, stood at the range loading a double barreled breach loading shot gun. He was facing the spectators, who stood outside the range about twenty feet from the place where McCauley was loading the gun. The gun in some way exploded, the two charges of the gun going into the crowd of spectators. Three of them were hit, of whom two are expected to die.

William Griggs, 28 years of age, received part of the charge of shot in the right side of his head and is expected to die at any moment. George Holzworth, 28 years of age, also received part of the shot in the right side of the forehead. He will not recover. William Hooker was the third spectator injured. He received some of the shot in the forehead and will lose the sight of his right eye.

Mangled to Death by a Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Two men were instantly killed last night in an accident at the Venango street crossing of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad. One was James Doran, of 2563 Hutchinson street, but the other lies unidentified at the morgue. Doran and his companion were driving along the street in a carriage, when the horse took fright and dashed into the safety gate at the crossing, breaking it down. The men were thrown out and were hurled by a passing train in front of another train going in the opposite direction, which ran over their bodies, mauling them terribly.

An Eight Year-Old Boy Killed.

SHAMONIN, Pa., Nov. 30.—At Coal Run Stephen Madden, aged 8 years, was shot and instantly killed and his little sister was severely burned yesterday by the discharge of a shotgun which was accidentally knocked down by a younger brother while the children were dressing.

Three Children Cremated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 30.—Three small children, two boys and a girl, of Mrs. W. K. Walters, living near Palarm, twenty miles from here, were burned to death yesterday while the mother was away from home at work. She had locked them in the house.

Fooled the Train Robbers.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 30.—Train robbers held up a Southern Pacific train fourteen miles from here. Engineer Pickens and Fireman Radcliffe were ordered to the ground, and the latter was sent back to cut the train back of the baggage and express cars, the robbers evidently intending to run to a point where they had confederates in waiting. Radcliffe cut the air brake here, however, and that set every brake on the train. After trying for an hour to remedy the matter the robbers became frightened and fled. Then the trainmen repaired the hose and proceeded.

MAY AND DECEMBER.

General Cassius M. Clay's Wedding to His Fifteen-year-old Ward.

Only witnesses to the marriage were Dr. Clelland Richardson and Dr. Cassius M. Clay, the latter a physician of Richmond, Ky. Dr. Smith refused to say anything about the wedding, explaining that he had promised General Clay not to do so.

It was learned that the ceremony took place in the sitting room. The bride was not dressed as brides usually are. She wore a plain dark dress, was bareheaded, her long black tresses hanging in an aloe-dish beveled mass down her back. She wore no gloves, had no orange blossoms and carried no bride's roses in her hand. It was a simple ceremony. The girl, who had remained sitting until General Clay and the magistrate arose, got up from the divan and took her place beside her white-headed bridegroom. It was a touching scene.

The man who had led admiring thousands in a crusade for human liberty, who in his youth was a perfect Apollo Delvador in appearance, if not a Napoleon in the cause of abolition, stood as meekly as a little child, with an expression of unspeakable happiness upon his face, still fresh and almost youthful features, and by his side that simple, trusting country girl, as shy as a gazelle, knowing as little of the great world in which her venerable husband had played so conspicuous a part as the most untutored daughter of nature. The ceremony was very brief, and when it was over the bashful child went back to the kitchen, and General Clay and his family physician sat talking by the large open fireplace, in which glowed two bushels of burning coals.

And thus was celebrated one of the most remarkable weddings that ever took place in the United States.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

HIGH TREASON.

Paris Greatly Excited Over the Disclosures Following the Arrest of Captain Dreyfus.

The excitement over the spy mania is still high in Paris. The case of Captain Dreyfus, who is awaiting court martial, causes extraordinary comment. It is said to be the intention of the government to insist upon the extreme penalty of death in case he is found guilty. There is apparently good authority for the statement that precise particulars respecting the transport and concentration of the French forces in the event of mobilization after a declaration of war were placed in the hands of agents of the triple alliance. The hours of the departure and running of trains with troops on the main railway lines and also the branch lines were set forth, together with details of the places at which stores would be procured en route. It is asserted that even the original documents were supplied to the intelligence department of the triple alliance at Berlin.

Another story relates that the disappearance of some important paper from a pigeonhole at the war office was frequently noticed. After diligent search the document would be found in the precise place from which it had been abstracted. The general staff also is said to have been aware that the German war office prided itself on its initiation into many of the secrets of the plan of mobilization. For a long time the French military authorities were puzzled, but eventually succeeded in unraveling the mystery. It will be quite another thing to prove who has been guilty of these acts of high treason.—Paris Letter.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

The London "South End Mystery" to Close With the Hanging of Read.

It is many months since London and all England have been aroused to such unanimous interest in a criminal trial as that manifested in the solution of what has been known since June last as the south end mystery. A young married man in comfortable circumstances named Read has been tried for the murder of Florence Dennis, a young woman with whom he had improper relations. Her body was found in a lone- some spot, and there was no direct evidence to connect Read with the crime. It was principally his reckless, unsupported denials and the extraordinary story of his depravity in many directions that finally resulted in his conviction and sentence to death.

It was proved that he was in the neighborhood of the murder when he asserted he was 50 miles away. It was also shown that he had similar relations with several other women, and that the murdered girl was about to become the mother of his child. Nevertheless the evidence was not sufficient to convict in an American court, and the prisoner reaffirmed his innocence in strong language before the death sentence was pronounced upon him. He will be hanged.—London Cor. New York Sun.

Japan Snubs Great Britain.

If the latest dispatches from Japan are worth anything, that government's diplomacy is as effective as its military dispatches. The English charge that Japan is seeking the disruption of the Chinese empire, and England is exceedingly anxious about the interests of humanity. But Japan declares that she is seeking nothing of the sort and has an equal interest in humanity with England. All she wants is to see China consolidated and freed from cruel superstition, with her gates open to the civilization and commerce of the world. If this is not an oblique slap in the face for Great Britain, what is it?—Philadelphia Press.

Folly Cost Her a Month.

An American girl, giving the name of Grace Larmore Drew, has been sentenced to a month in jail in Paris for stealing small articles from the Bon Marche. Her lawyer told the court that she made a bet at a ladies' club in London to travel over Europe alone. In a moment of folly she stole the articles to send as presents to her London friends.

COTTLENE.

Lardepsia

would be a more appropriate name for that common cause of suffering—dyspepsia—because most cases of dyspepsia can be traced to food cooked with lard. Let COTTLENE take the place of lard in your kitchen and good health will take the place of Dyspepsia.

BURGLARY INSURANCE.

The Latest Thing in the Way of Guaranteeing Indemnity For Losses.

Burglaries have become so frequent in Chicago that several capitalists have now under consideration the formation of a burglary indemnity company. Hardly a day passes in which some residence or mercantile building is not entered by thieves and valuable property damaged or taken away. In a large percentage of the burglaries the property is never recovered. Even when it is found the article is generally in a damaged condition and of little value.

When the company commences business, its policy holders can go away from home for a few days or abroad for a vacation and not be in a perpetual state of worry about the safety of their household effects. This would be because the company believes prevention of housebreaking is even better than the conviction of the burglar. An efficient force of watchmen would patrol the district in which the insured lived.

When a burglary was committed, the policy holder would have to report at once to the offices of the company. Its agents would go to the building just as the adjusters of a fire company would in case of a loss. All the property damaged would be taken possession of as if it were salvage, and trained detectives would endeavor to run down the criminals.

A charter has already been issued to the company in Iowa, where a capital of $50,000 was subscribed. Application was then made to the insurance commissioner of Illinois to do business in this state. He looked up the law, and though it does not expressly include burglary indemnity companies in its provisions he decided that the company could legally do business if a $100,000 subscription was raised in the state. This will now be done, and the headquarters for the United States will be established in Chicago. From here branches will likely be established in all the large cities of the country. In Great Britain and Canada similar companies have successfully transacted business for several years.—Chicago Times

COLORED WEATHER LORE.

Thick Feathers on Ducks and Other Signs of a Hard Winter.

A party of the wags who are always hanging around the National hotel held up old Carter Bowie, the colored man who has sold raw oysters from the can for seasons immemorial on Sixth street, yesterday, and after chafing him for awhile on various questions touched him in a tender spot by asking him what kind of weather Washington was going to have this winter.

"Tell yer, honey, yer bettah git yer coat in putty soon, kase days mifely squally times ahead," said Carter. "De ducks ain't nebbber had ez much down onter day bresses ez day is dis'fall since I kin 'member. Hit's dat thick dat yer cyahnt see de meat ther hit nobow. A Merry Burglar.

A series of most daring robberies is now puzzling the Anderson (Ind.) officials. When Joseph Munchoff, a furniture dealer, awoke the other morning, he found the following note lying on his desk hardly ten feet from where he had been sleeping:

MY DEAR SIR: If you had some money in your pockets, I would not have bothered your watch and your wife's salubrious sack. I thank you for sleeping so soundly.

NEW YORK BURGLES.

Here are five pennies; have a cigar on me. The note was neatly penned on Mr. Munchoff's note paper, and on it lay five pennies. Six other houses were entered and money taken when it could be found. It is thought that all of the robberies have been committed by this nifty individual.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's Partridges.

By the authentic and authoritative way of an English print the word comes that when Mrs. Vanderbilt wants to eat the wing of a partridge she has ten birds cooked and served from which to choose. There are several Mrs. Vanderbilts in this country who might easily afford this method of selection, but the London newspaper does not venture further than this wholesale statement. And why only ten birds? It doesn't take millions to buy ten partridges. A really good story would be that a partridge with ten wings was offered.—New York Times.

Granted His Request.

On payment of $300 a young man is excused from military service in Spain. The other day a man wrote to the queen that he had already paid $3,000 for 10 of his sons and begging her to excuse the other 14, as he had no more money. The queen granted the request.—Madrid Letter.

SAFETY ON THE WATER.

The Inspector's Department's Claim of Efficient Work.

Nearly 700,000,000 people carried on American steamers during the last fiscal year and only 255 lives lost, of whom but 96 were passengers, is the prominent feature of the new annual report of Supervising Inspector General Dumont of steam vessel inspection service. This is a smaller mortality among the same number of people, we have no doubt, than if they had all staid at home and went regularly to bed, to say nothing of traveling by rail. It proves again what we have often remarked—that travel by American steamers under the system of inspection now enforced is the safest that could possibly be devised. Thirty-five of the 96 passengers above referred to lost their lives in one disaster—the sinking of the tugboat James D. Nicol off Sandy Hook on a Sunday in June last, and General Dumont states that this disaster was solely due to the fact that the tug was being navigated by a person wholly inexperienced.

It is further stated in the report that of the nearly 11,000 boilers inspected accidents causing the loss of life have occurred to but 15 of them, defects in upward of 700 being detected and remedied; also that of 100,274 new life preservers examined only 64 were found deficient. This statement shows that as great care is taken in the inspection of equipments to prevent disaster as in the machinery employed to run them and the men who man them. In regard to the latter no less than 38 applicants for master's and pilot's licenses were rejected during the year on account of color blindness, although 1,544 passed the tests. All of which goes to show that the traveling public and the steam vessel fraternity as well have every reason to repose confidence in the inspection system as at present managed.—Marine Journal.

DANGER IN PERFECTION.

A Prince and a Baron Imitated a Stag Up to the Killing Point.

It would be difficult to find on record a stranger hunting adventure than that experienced by Prince Hohenlohe, son of the German chancellor, and Baron Vietinghoff recently. They went out together to shoot stags and agreed to decoy the animals by imitating their call on a special horn. The hunters separated, each accompanied by a gamekeeper, and went in different directions. During the course of the day they approached each other, and each heard the other's decoy call and believed a stately stag was before him. Imitating the heavy steps of the animal, they noisily drew still nearer. The imitation of the steps and call was so well done that they finally arrived within ten paces of each other without perceiving their mistake.

The thicket was so dense that they could not see through it. Both stood still, repeating the challenge from time to time. Each still firmly believed that he was within a few paces of a real stag. At last the prince, tired of waiting, fired thrice rapidly in the direction of the supposed game. The first bullet glanced off the cartridge belt of Baron Vietinghoff, the second struck his watch and sprang off, the third fell dead from his pocketbook well filled with papers. The young baron, though hit three times, stood unwounded. He was so convinced that not his fellow hunter, but a stag, was before him that he attributed the shots to the explosion of cartridges in his belt and busied himself unfastening his belt for the purpose of throwing it away. The astonishment of both when they at last found out what had happened was great.—Berlin Special.

COMPETING WITH CHICAGO.

Norway Making Arrangements to Supply London With Mutton.

London will shortly have the advantage of another meat supply—this time from Norway—which, according to the London Telegraph, is perfecting arrangements for supplying the English metropolis with as much mutton, alive or dead, as it can spare for exportation. Systematic experiments were made recently under the supervision of the Stavanger Agricultural society, and the results were so satisfactory that in the approaching cold season it is to be repeated on a larger scale.

It appears that 80 sheep, each weighing about 100 pounds, were fattened for a week or so until they turned the scale at from 115 pounds to 123 pounds. They were then shipped to London, where they realized an average price, after deducting commission, of about $7.50, and as the total outlay had only been about $6.50 per head there was a net profit of nearly $1 on each animal.

Forty were also sent over with the skins, hoofs and interior intact, but on these three was an average loss of 10 shillings per head, partly explained by the skins being damaged through bad packing.

Nevertheless the Stavanger society has come to the conclusion that the business promises to be remunerative, and the English people have thus an additional guarantee of an adequate supply of mutton.

A Tyrannical Landlord.

According to Mr. Labouchere in London Truth, the Duke of Beaufort, one of the most tyrannical of the landlords of England, assumes to dictate all the affairs of the town of Stoke-Gifford. His grace took objection to the election of Admiral Close as a churchwarden and served notices to quit on the tenant farmers who voted for him. The duke afterward announced that he would withdraw the notices only on condition that the farmers should not suffer, the admiral did resign. It now appears that Admiral Close himself was a tenant of the duke, and he also received a notice to quit his house, which has just expired. He has practically been evicted because he was chosen churchwarden without ducal approval.

CHOLLY'S CONTRIBUTIONS.

Bits of Gotham Gossip Picked Up In Sacred Precincts and Whispered Outside.

I am requested to DENY in capital letters that any matrimonial engagement exists between Miss Odette Tyler and Mr. Howard Gould, and to assert that the $3,000 ruby is a token of friendship only.

Howard Gould is engaged, but only in building a 29 meter to take abroad to try to retrieve the evil fortunes of Vigilant.

Mrs. Bradley-Martin's return home will be awaited with all the more impatience since it is known that she has bought the diamond crown of the unfortunate Marie Antoinette.

This is no evidence that Mrs. Bradley-Martin has lost her head, because the tiara industry had really become too common.

Almost every other woman in a grand tier box at the opera house has been wearing a tiara boom-de-ay, as these costly headpieces are irreverently called.

A crowned head will be a novelty.

It is not often that we associate feats of strength with hooligans of continental Europe except in regard to their tenacity in holding on to American heiresses.

Yet it seems that we have been entertaining a veritable Samson in the person of the very agreeable but by no means muscular looking Count Hadik, who spent the summer in Newport and is going to spend the winter in New York.

At an exhibition given at one of the clubs the other day he astonished the company by snapping chains as neatly as one breaks off an engagement these days, by "putting up" 150 pound dumbbells and by tearing in two three packs of cards held together.

I have seen some very peculiar tricks with cards performed by foreign noblemen, but never one that excelled this.

As Count Hadik is also said to be one of the best pistol shots in Europe, there seems to be every prospect that he will complete his American tour unmolested and unharmed.—Cholly Knickerbocker in New York Regard.

CZAR AND THE MANIFESTO.

On His Deathbed Alexander III Declared His Love of the Peace Policy.

Pathetic stories, some true and some probably apocryphal, about the last hours of the late czar are appearing in the press of the continent. The most remarkable is one which purports to describe how the dying monarch himself revised the manifesto which announced his own death and his son's succession. This is intended as a refutation of the assertion that the manifesto was written by De Giers. As a matter of fact, there is every reason to believe that the proclamation was written, of course in accordance with instructions, by the procurator of the synod. According to the story, the late czar pressed his son to give him the manifesto. When he had perused it, he expressed his approbation, saying that he felt perfectly resigned, as his work would be continued. He would, however, like to add some words which would reassure the Russians and Europe. He then wrote:

"We, in the presence of the Most High, record a solemn vow always to make our sole aim the peaceful development of the power and glory of our beloved Russia and the happiness of all our faithful subjects."

Reading the manifesto again, Alexander III paused at the passage, "but also far beyond the borders of Russia the memory of the czar, who was the incarnation of unswerving loyalty and of peace," and added the words, "a peace which, during his reign, was not once broken."

"It is my claim to glory," observed the emperor as he laid down his pen. "I desired peace, the greatest blessing that God can grant us in this world. May misfortune befall those who break it, but you will know how to maintain it with those who are with us and to make others respect it."

A JOCKEY'S INCOME.

A Small Boy's Big Earnings During the Year, Which Go For a Good Purpose.

A small boy, with no particular education, who can increase his income by $12,000 in a single year, may claim to be an exception to the general run of boys. This is what Jockey Griffin has done this year, and apparently he has not placed his services above their market value. He was something in the nature of a "find" last year, when Mr. Gideon engaged him at a salary of $4,000 for a year's riding. During the season Griffin proved that Mr. Gideon's judgment was correct, for he gained remarkable prominence among the jockeys. When it came time to talk about this season's work, it was found that Griffin had been approached by a number of owners, and that Mr. Lorillard had offered him $15,000 to ride for his stable next year. He was re-engaged by Gideon & Daly for $16,000 for the coming season, an increase of exactly $12,000 over his salary for the past season.

It is not to be understood that this figure represents the entire income of the jockey, for under the rules he is permitted to ride for other owners when his services are not demanded by the man to whom he is under contract. The perquisites of a good jockey are more than the salary of a capable cashier or bookkeeper. Griffin, for instance, received $2,500 by way of a present, outside of his salary, for winning the Futurity. He is a sober, well-mannered lad and still very young, but he takes a great pride in his family and is educating his sisters and brothers out of his earnings.—New York Sun.

A VICTORY FOR PASKOLA

It Receives the Official Endorsement of Eminent Experts and a Jury of Representative Citizens.

The suit brought by Ohio's Food Commissioner against a Cincinnati druggist for selling Paskola on the ground that it was nothing but glucose, resulted in a great victory for Paskola and a verdict against the State.

During the course of the trial, Prof. Shaller of the University of Cincinnati, testified that Paskola was not glucose, and even if it was, it would be harmless. He also bore witness to its activity as a digestive agent.

Prof. Wm. Dickore of the Miami College, testified to the same facts. So did Prof. Schmidt, the chemist of the Board of Health, Prof. Wm. Hoffman and others.

A practical test was made in court, showing the digestive action of Paskola on eggs and meats of various kinds, whereas glucose under precisely the same conditions produced no effect whatever.

This test but confirmed the expert's statements and proved Paskola to be of great value in indigestion and wasting diseases.

This verdict disposes of the malicious attack that has been made against Paskola by interested rivals, and suits have now been brought against the proprietors of a well-known emulsion of cod liver oil for having given wide circulation to a false formula and other misrepresentations regarding it.

The animus of this attack will be the better understood when it is stated that Paskola is being largely used in the place of cod liver oil.

No Fear of Trouble in Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Secretary Herbert has returned from Alabama. He says that there will be no trouble in Alabama as a result of the manifestoes of Reuben Kolb, who asserts that he intends to be inaugurated as governor. There will not be a gun fired. Kolb may have himself inaugurated at some point near Montgomery, but he will not even attract a large crowd to see him through the theatrics.

There May be a Triple Execution.

HAWKINSVILLE, Ga., Nov. 30.—Wash Strong, colored, who killed another negro, and Frank Caruthers, also colored, who slew his white employer, were yesterday sentenced to hang from the same scaffold on Jan. 11. With Clements, who murdered his mistress, is also to be tried at the present term of court, and in case of his conviction, which is almost certain, there will be a triple execution.

War on the "Blind Tigers."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 30.—A sensation was caused here by the transfer of Chief State Constable Holley to the western section of the state and his substitution by Chief Constable Fant, a more aggressive officer. The purpose is to make more vigorous war on the "blind tigers."

The Weather.

For eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, increasing cloudiness; showers tonight; warmer; southeast winds. Increasing cloudiness, with rain or snow and rising temperature, is indicated for New England and eastern New York.

Another Thanksgiving Day Murder.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Owen McDermott, an iron molder, aged 44, was fatally stabbed in a Bowery saloon yesterday. James and Richard Burns tried to rob him, whereupon he knocked James down. As McDermott and James Burns were struggling on the floor Richard Burns plunged a knife into McDermott's left side. The wounded man was then thrown out of the saloon. The Burns brothers were arrested, and McDermott identified Richard as the one who stabbed him.

Kolb Leaves for Alabama's Capital.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 30.—Captain Reuben F. Kolb left for Montgomery yesterday, where he expects to take oath of office as governor tomorrow. Kolb still persists that he and his followers will do nothing unlawful, but just what the outcome will be remains to be seen. It is understood that his followers, who will go to Montgomery, will be armed and prepared for trouble. The military will have guns loaded, but every effort will be made to avert a conflict, and Kolb will not be arrested unless he or his followers undertake to seize the state house or to usurp authority.

Terribly Beaten by Masked Men.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 30.—Eight masked men rode up to the house of Jose Chavez Romero, near Los Tunas, and calling Romero out threw a lariat around his neck, dragged him to a bridge, stripped him of his clothing and whipped him unmercifully. They then hung him to a beam until he was nearly dead and rode off after warning him to leave Los Tunas. No reason for their action is known.

Burglars Blow Open a Safe.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 30.—The office of the Holloway Bottling company, of this city, was entered by burglars during the night and the safe was robbed, after being blown open with powder. A number of papers and $100 in cash were taken. The burglars first broke open the shop of the Beech Creek Railroad company.

Peruvian Government Troops Defeated.

LIMA, Nov. 30.—An engagement has taken place between the government troops and the insurgents under General Sembrano. The latter were defeated.

Kentucky Mines Closed Down.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., Nov. 30.—Bryson Mountain, Mingo Mountain, Reliance and York Ridge Coal and Coke companies closed down their mines Wednesday night, and between 500 and 1,000 are thrown out of employment.

Princess Bismarck's Funeral.

VARZIN, Nov. 30.—A funeral service over the remains of Princess Bismarck was conducted yesterday at the chateau by the local clergyman, Pastor Schumann, of Wussow. The body was then removed and temporarily deposited in the pavilion in the park. Prince Bismarck, leaning upon the arm of his daughter, Countess Von Kantzau, walked behind the body. He was terribly affected, but not ill.

Reading's Railroad War.

READING, Pa., Nov. 30.—During the night the Reading Traction company set a force of seventy-five men at work and laid a double track for its cars across the fine iron county bridge at the foot of Penn street, to which the present county commissioners objected. Later an injunction was served on the offending parties, but the tracks are all down and the traction company has guards on duty.

Challenged to Fight a Duel.

MADRID, Nov. 30.—Senator Salmeron, the Republican leader, and Senator Abarzuza, the colonial minister, became involved in a dispute in the chamber yesterday. Senator Salmeron used language to the colonial minister which the latter considered insulting. As a result he has challenged Senator Salmeron to fight a duel.

Many important measures are on the calendars of the Senate and House of Representatives, which meet Monday, but there is little likelihood of any really important legislation in this short session. The "pop gun" tariff bills and the bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona await action in the Senate. While that body was dilly-dallying with the tariff, the House was busy passing bills, and about 800 House bills are now awaiting the Senate's action. Among the more important of these are the Anti-Option bill, the National Bankruptcy bill, and the resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment directing the election of Senators by the people. If, as is expected, the President recommends the appointment of a currency commission, the very important question of the currency will have to be considered, and Mr. Bland, who failed of re-election, is understood to be determined to press his free silver coinage bill. The coming session bids fair, therefore, to be a busy and interesting one.

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICES.

At Grace Church—The Union Service at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Thanksgiving Day service at Grace Church was very fairly attended. The sermon was on the word, "Ebenezer," showing how, "hitherto, the Lord hath helped us"—as a nation, as a city, and in our church life. In speaking of the providences of God toward this city, the preacher made use of the article in Wednesday's Argus, headed, "Our City's Reasons for Thanksgiving." The offertory of $13 was given to the fund for widows and orphans of the clergy. Special prayers, distributed throughout the diocese by Bishop Potter, were used, in which thanks were offered for the recent triumph of righteousness in the elections of New York city.

THE UNION SERVICES.

Union services were held at the First Presbyterian Church, at 10:30 a. m. The congregation was a larger one than is usual on these occasions. The services were in charge of Rev. Dr. Gordon.

The opening Psalm was read by Rev. Dr. Katz, of the German Lutheran Church, who also read the hymn. Dr. Gordon led the congregation in responsive reading. Rev. Dr. Beattie offered a prayer.

Rev. F. A. Heath, pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached the sermon. His text was: Eph. v: 20—"Giving thanks always in all things unto God and the Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ."

He said the spirit of thanksgiving is inborn. It is found in Scripture and in common life. Thanksgiving offerings was a prominent part of the religion of the Jews, and David's writings were almost a continued thanksgiving. Even the lower animals express as best as they can their gratitude for kindness.

The object of thanksgiving is God. We may be thankful but cannot express our gratitude except to a personality.

The extent of Thanksgiving is always in all things. It is not hard to be thankful when the events of life follow the lines of our own choice, but it requires grace and training to enter into the spirit of the text.

A collection for the Missionary Union was made at the close of the service, the receipts being $30.25.

ANTITOXINE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

The New Remedy Used on a Child of Mr. John Heckroth.

A child of Mr. John Heckroth, the North street cigar manufacturer, was taken sick with diphtheria, Monday, and was getting along well under Dr. Douglas's treatment until Wednesday, when with the change in the weather diphtheritic croup developed. Dr. Douglas, realizing that the case was critical, telegraphed to New York for antitoxine, the new remedy, but not being able to secure a supply at short notice, Dr. Swartwout, of Port Jervis, who had procured a bottle of antitoxine, several days ago, was summoned and, yesterday afternoon, he injected twenty-two drops in the child's back. The child has held its own since and another injection of the antitoxine was given this afternoon.

Children's Clothing Again!

Is it possible that you have already forgotten what we said about children's clothing? If so, we repeat for your especial benefit. 'Twas this: We are selling our entire stock of Children's Clothing without profit. This method we have adopted because we believe that can we once serve you we shall always serve you, feeling assured we can supply you with the best goods at the lowest price attainable. We have marked the prices on the children's goods in plain figures, so you can see for yourself.

To the contrary, as has been insinuated, we are not working off old stock because we sell without profit. The stock is all new, and the same that we would have sold you at a profit had we not adopted this method.

Again:—Is it probable that we make up the profit on the other lines of stock with other clothiers in town, when we sell, as we do, below their rates? How think you?

"Many a man has eaten a cold dinner because of an attractive dry goods ad that has appeared in the morning newspapers."—Printers Ink.

Yes, and many a man has eaten a good warm dinner so hurriedly and with his mind so full of business that he suffers from dyspepsia. Now he should use McMonagle & Rogers' Pepsin Essence and get well again. A great many people in Middletown know its good effects. Trial size 25 cents. Sold at McMonagle & Rogers' drug store only.

WE LIKE PARTICULAR PEOPLE,

those with clearly defined ideas as to quality and who know a good thing when they see it. It's the kind of trade for which we cater and the quality of our goods is our strong argument. In medicines there should be but one quality and that the best obtainable. That's our rule. Where do you get your prescriptions? Do they receive skill, accuracy and quality? Be particular. Bring them to us. McMonagle & Rogers, Druggist.

Rogers, Opera Cologne, a great success! 25 cents—try it.

Hosiery -- Underwear -- Gloves.

Don't forget that we make a specialty of these goods, for ladies and children, and doesn't it stand to reason that we can sell you these goods cheaper, and show you more complete lines, when this is almost our sole object?

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

The Double Crime of a Former Goshen Hotel Keeper—He Cuts the Throat of His Mistress and Kills Himself.

The dispatch published below gives the details of a double crime perpetrated by a man well known in this locality, Chas. N. Richards, who, for several years was the proprietor of the Occidental Hotel in Goshen and was also a partner for some time with Mr. John Farrell, of the Homestead Hotel, in this city.

He left Goshen about six years ago and took charge of the Jefferson House, at Watkins, which he conducted with success. Employed in the house was a girl named Katie Quirk, aged twenty-three years, with whom he became infatuated and soon their intimacy became town talk. Mrs. Richards repeatedly discharged the girl, but as often as she did Mr. Richards brought her back.

His son, aged sixteen years, espoused the mother's cause, and one day finding the girl and his father together, knocked the girl down with a chair. She then left and went to the Kendall House, but continued her intimacy with Richards, and he so neglected his business that he was soon forced to give up his hotel. He then opened a restaurant, but barely managed to get along.

Katie began to tire of Richards and he went to Indiana, declaring he would never return, but he soon came back and finding the girl receiving the attentions of a young man, threatened to kill her if she went with him again.

Wednesday night, Richards learned that Kate had gone to Elmira with the young man and returned at a late hour.

At 3 o'clock, yesterday morning, Richards aroused a druggist and purchased an ounce of laudanum. Then taking a carving knife from his restaurant he stole into the girl's room in the Kendall House and committed the double crime as detailed below.

WATKINS DEPOT, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Yesterday morning about 5:30 o'clock Miss Jennie Caldwell, an employee of the Hotel Kendall, went to the room occupied by Miss Kate Quirk, another employee, to call her. She did not receive any answer. After Mrs. Kendall, the landlady, had been called, Miss Caldwell pushed the key from the keyhole inside, and unlocked the door with the key to her room.

It was found that a murder and possible suicide had been committed. In the front side of the bed lay the dead body of Kate Quirk. A large carving knife, such as is used in restaurants, was on the bureau which stood at the foot of the bed. This knife had been stuck into the girl's throat in front and then turned and withdrawn. She was lying on her left side facing the wall and was undressed and covered up partially with the bed clothes.

On the other side of the bed lay Charles N. Richards, of this village, a restaurant keeper, and former landlord of the Jefferson House. He lay in a pool of blood, as his throat was cut in a very ragged manner. He was unconscious from the loss of blood, but was breathing. The girl had evidently been dead some hours, as her body was cold. There was a large pool of blood on the floor, and it looked as if Richards had held the girl on the floor and cut her throat. There is a mark on her neck as if she was choked to prevent her making an outcry. The only blood on the bed is the pool in which Richards was found lying.

Richards was removed to an adjoining room, and Drs. Barnes and Scull dressed his wounds. He was found to be under the influence of morphine. He died at 10:40 o'clock without regaining consciousness. The intimacy between Richards and Miss Quirk had been a matter of town talk ever since he came to this village.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

A Walkill Boy Swallows Half an Ounce of Laudanum.

From our Montgomery Correspondent.
A young man about eighteen years old, a son of Mr. Sufferin, of the firm of Brown & Sudera, drovers of near Middletown, came to this village, Thanksgiving Day, purchased a half ounce of laudanum, which he drank and then fell asleep in Shafter's hotel.

He was aroused with difficulty and told what he had taken. A physician was called who administered the proper antidote.

The boy had no recollection of when he left home or where he had been in the mean time.

Suicide at Monticello.

George Kent, of Monticello, seventy seven years old, committed suicide, Saturday, by hanging. He had been melancholy since the death of his wife, five years ago, and recent illness had made him still more depressed.

A Brakeman's Fingers Crushed.

John Reeder, a brakeman on O. and W. train 21, had three fingers badly crushed and broken while making a coupling at Campbell Hall, this morning. He was brought to this city where his injuries were dressed by Dr. Hulett. He will probably lose the injured members.

A Western Trip.

Mr. John Seeholzer, of the Wickham avenue restaurant, started, yesterday, on an extended western trip. He will visit Chicago, St. Paul and many points of interest along the Northern Pacific Railroad. He expects to remain away about a month.

A Child Enjoys.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle on hand.

FALL OF A SCAFFOLD.

Two Men Injured at the Armory—Narrow Escape of Two Others who Hung on for Dear Life.

For several days past workmen have been engaged in repairing the roof and cornice of the armory. Shortly before noon, a scaffold on the southern end of the building gave way, and four workmen who were upon it had a narrow escape from death. Messrs. Wm. Musbach and Thomas Murphy fell a distance of twenty feet to the ground. Arthur Conkling, son of Mr. J. H. Conkling, saved himself by grasping a portion of the scaffold, which did not fall and another workman, a Swede, from New York, caught a cornice and pulled himself out of danger. Mr. Murphy complained of pains about the back. He was removed to his home on Wallkill avenue, where Dr. Hulett examined him but was unable to find any bones broken, although it was evident he was seriously injured.

The patrol wagon was summoned and Mr. Musbach, who appeared to have been injured most seriously, was taken to Thrall Hospital.

When examined by the surgeons there it was found that three of his ribs were broken,—that he was badly bruised and was suffering severely from shock. Mr. Musbach is well along in years and it will be some time before he recovers from his injuries.

OBITUARY.

James Elder.
Mr. James Elder died at his home on Sprout street, at 5:30 a. m. yesterday, of paralysis, in his seventieth year. He was stricken on Nov. 16th, while returning from Circleville with a load of wood.

Mr. Elder was born in the town of Crawford, but has resided in this city many years. About forty years ago he united with the Presbyterian Church at Bloomingburgh, but during his residence here was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife and two children, ex-Officer Charles M. Elder and Emma C., wife of George W. Clark, Jr., both of this city; also by one brother, Marcus, of this city, and three sisters, Margaret A., widow of Frank Kincaid, and Jane, both of Middletown, and Mary, wife of David Ayers, of Circleville.

The funeral will take place at his late residence, No. 3 Sprout street, tomorrow at 11 a. m. The interment will be at Bloomingburgh.

Miss Arminda Emily Boak.

Miss Arminda Emily Boak died at her home near Scotchtown at 6 p. m., Wednesday, of inflammation of the stomach, after an illness of two weeks.

She was a daughter of James Boak and since his death about fifty years ago, she and her two sisters, Melinda and Lucinda, have lived together. They were devotedly attached to and wholly dependent upon each other, and this break in their household will be a severe blow to the surviving sisters, one of whom, Melinda, has been ill for the past three months and is now in a critical condition.

Deceased was a very devout christian. She was a member of the Scotchtown Presbyterian Church, having united with it during the pastorate of Rev. Edward Prime, the first ordained minister to fill the pulpit of the new church.

The funeral will take place at the Scotchtown Church at 2:30 p. m., on Thursday. Rev. Dr. Chas. Beattie will preach the funeral sermon.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY LINEMAN INJURED

John Ayers Dragged from the Tower Car and Quite Badly Hurt.

This morning, Mr. John Ayers, who does the wiring for the Traction Company, was dragged from the tower car at Ryerson's switch on the Goshen line, and sustained serious injuries.

He was at work on the top of the car, and as it was being moved along he failed to stoop down to pass under a wire, which caught him in the back and threw him to the ground.

He received a bad cut on the forehead and another in the corner of the eye and was badly bruised about the body.

Mr. Ayers, it will be remembered, fell from an electric light pole in the West two or three years ago, when he was injured so badly that he was laid up in a hospital several months, and was unable to work until a few months ago.

Hood's Cured the Catarrh.

ST. ANDREW'S, N. Y., Nov. 20, 1894.—O. W. Walker, of this place, makes the following statement: "For eighteen years I have had catarrh in the head. I doctored with several physicians and they told me there was no help for me. My druggist advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using three bottles I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life."

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Football Game—Opening of the Electric Road—Catastrophe's Hop.
From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The game of football on the Driving Park, yesterday afternoon, was witnessed by a crowd of about 800 people. The game was very one-sided, the Institute eleven outplaying that of the Crescent Athletic Club and winning by a score of 40 to 0.

—The big business done by the Middletown-Goshen line, yesterday, shows that it meets a long felt want. The noisy crowds on some of the cars in the evening should be suppressed.

—Catastrophe's hop, Thanksgiving Eve, was largely attended and was a very pleasant affair. Many from out of town were present.

THANKSGIVING DAY SHOOTING MATCH

Local Sportsmen Try Their Skill at Live Birds and Clay Pigeons.

A number of our local wing shots journeyed to Howells Depot, yesterday, and participated in several contests at live birds and clay pigeons. A private match at clay pigeons, held in the morning, between J. McKee and T. King, resulted as follows:

	Killed	Missed
King	10	10
McKee	10	10

The second match, at live pigeons, was won by Mr. Chas. V. Predmore, who killed all of the five birds.

	Killed	Missed
Predmore	5	0
McKee	2	3
King	2	3
Steele	2	3
Staple	1	4
Mills	1	4

Messrs. Drake and Heater shot at eight and ten birds respectively; the former killed three and missed five, and the latter killed five and missed five.

At clay pigeons, the following scores were made:

	Killed	Missed
C. Faulkner	5	0
D. Lemon	4	1
Sullivan	3	2
W. Steele	2	3

A sweepstakes match resulted as follows:

	Killed	Missed
Heater	9	1
Mills	7	3
Predmore	6	4
King	5	5
Decker	5	5
Drake	5	5
Gillen	5	5

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance. "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and were looking for an available remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 lbs., and although she has taken only 12 bottles of Nervine she now weighs 110 lbs.; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could be paid for our daughter the health Dr. Wick Nervine has brought her.

"When my brother recommended the remedy (I had no faith in patent medicines and would not believe in it, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle we began giving it to Blanche, and the next day she was able to walk. Mrs. R. R. Burch, Brighton, N. Y."

Dr. Wick's Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee. Direct from Dr. Wick's Medical Co., 114 West 12th St., New York, N. Y. 100 bottles for $5.00, 250 bottles for $12.50, 500 bottles for $25.00, 1000 bottles for $45.00. Free from all druggists or dangerous drugs.

THE SASSIETY TOUT.

His Latest Budget of Tips Contains Some That Are Very Interesting.

Both Delavina and Bohemia, not to say the church and stage, will be greatly interested in the news of two engagements about to be announced.

Now, I want to preface my voicing of the rumor by declaring that I know both engagements will be emphatically, even violently, denied, but that is only the proper paper now.

I hear that Mrs. Parson Stevens is to marry Mr. Albert Morris Dagby.

Now, nobody needs enlightenment as to Mrs. Parson Stevens, but there may be a few folks whose social encyclopedia contains no reference to Albert Morris Dagby.

Nevertheless he is a charming chap, of whom the women always speak as "that dear little Dagby."

He is a western born man of really oriental tact and finesse.

He gives music lessons, having been the favorite pupil par excellence of Liszt, and incidentally he gives the swiftest musicals of the season at the Waldorf—at $5 a ticket.

He has charming manners and has just completed a novel on the romantic life at Weimar of his great teacher, the Abbe Liszt.

He has attained a really enviable position in the genuine haut monde solely by his gentle breeding and his immense diplomacy, and nobody but his rivals will wish him aught but lots of plums in his wedding cake.

The other engagement that will soon be announced is that of Miss Olive Chamberlin and young Harper, son of a member of the great publishing house.

The very name of Harper is synonymous with Methodism and millions, and Miss Chamberlin is the daughter of that popular all round sport and "nature's nobleman," John Chamberlin.

She is a superb young woman still in her teens, of the Junoesque type of beauty and inheriting the magnetic charm of her mother, who was the brilliant, beautiful Emily Thorne, sister of the late Charles R. Thorne, Jr.

The stamp of approval of Miss Chamberlin's beauty and chic bears the Hall mark of such connoisseurs as George Work, George de Forest Grant and Francis Sykes, and she is as brilliant as she is beautiful.

I am requested to deny authoritatively that Mrs. E. Berry Wall contemplates going on the comic opera stage, or that she is even considering the offer made her by a well known impresario.

To be sure, she is taking singing lessons and is cultivating her voice with really fervid devotion; but, bless you, so is E. Berry himself.

No, Mrs. Wall will not appear on any stage, not even the amateur, this year.—Cholly Knickerbocker in New York Recorder.

THE MATCHMAKING QUEEN.

She May Not Be Physically Strong, But Is Able to Arrange Convenient Marriages.

Queen Victoria is said to be getting increasingly feeble in her powers of locomotion and has to be carried up stairs or the smallest rise of ground.

But whatever may be her physical condition her mental powers are absolutely unimpaired, and her capacity for work is undiminished. She takes increased interest, too, in matchmaking and has of late repeatedly expressed her opinion that the poorer prices of the younger branches of the royal house of England ought to marry into the wealthy aristocracy of Great Britain as Prince Adolphus of Teck has just done.

This young man has certainly done a wise thing by choosing as his wife the daughter of the Duke of Westminster, the richest peer in England. Few people outside the two families and the lawyers are likely to possess trustworthy information respecting the settlements in this match, but rumor has it that the duke has provided a dowry of $500,000 besides settling $25,000 a year upon the young couple. It may be said with absolute certainty that the prince has brought nothing into the settlement beyond life insurance policies and possibly a few thousands provided by the queen, with whom he is deservedly a great favorite.

It is no disgrace to the Duke of Teck to say that he lives well up to and probably considerably beyond his income, especially since the future king of England became his son-in-law.—London Cable.

Florence Blythe's Millions.

Florence Blythe-Hinckley has virtually come into possession of the large estate which contestants in the California courts so resolutely tried to wrest from her. Generally speaking, it is worth from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000. It consists of a San Francisco block, 80,000 acres of land in San Diego county, 44,000 acres of land in Mexico, adjoining California, and an interest in 1,800,000 acres of land in Mexico. Just what the Blythe estate interest in these 1,800,000 acres will have to be decided by the Mexican courts. A suit has been brought to determine the size of the Blythe interest in the large tract of land. There is also $125,000 in cash on hand belonging to the estate. This will go principally to pay the expenses of administration of the estate.—San Francisco Letter.

How Sherman Got into Congress.

"These are days of tidal waves," said Senator Sherman. "We had a marked change in 1892 and have just witnessed another. Do I recollect anything to equal the last one? Oh, yes. We had the same thing happen in 1854. Ohio elected a solid Republican delegation to congress. The election then turned on the slavery question. The tidal wave carried me into congress. I was a young lawyer and was nominated in a district with 3,000 Democratic majority. I hoped, of course, to be elected, but I had no reason to feel confident. Few expected it. Yet I went in with 2,000 more than enough to elect me."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

OLD CLOTHES IN DEMAND.

Secondhand Dealers Find It Difficult to Stock Up This Year.

The demand for old clothes appears to be looking up so far as New York is concerned. I do not know whether it is because of the recent election and the consequence of betting on the wrong ticket or the melancholy sequel of the last year's hard times, by reason of which men feel the necessity of turning out their clothing instead of turning it over to the secondhand dealer.

If you should be accosted on Broadway a couple of times a trip by agents of the secondhand dealers with the question whether you have any old clothes to sell, it may not be taken as an indication that your attire is out of date and covered by the trade, but that the trade is running short of stock and is pushing out for a fresh supply. It is better to consider the attention a subtle flattery, that you have the appearance of an individual who doesn't care for dress and are likely to have a score of better trousers hanging up in closets for the moths to feed upon.

Twice on a single afternoon last week, while conversing with a friend on Broadway, I was accosted by sharp looking young men in the interests of the secondhand trade. My friend was inclined to resent the intrusion. He said it was getting too hot for him when he was beset by old clothes men every time he stepped on Broadway.

"Is there anything out of the way about me?" he inquired, looking himself over critically. "That is the second time you've asked me that question today."

"I beg your pardon, sir," said the solicitor for the secondhand clothing house. "We didn't want the suit you have on."

We walked fully a block before my friend realized what I was laughing at, but when the humor of it finally permeated his intellectual system he took me in for a glass of vichy and milk.—New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

HOLLAND MAD.

The Enterprising and Honest Dutch Have Captured Gotham.

The town has suddenly gone Holland mad, not as that thrifty little kingdom did when it lost its heart over tulips and threatened to bring the finances of the country to ruin, but wisely, discreetly mad, as New Yorkers become. The china shops are filled with Delft, the silversmiths' cases with Dutch silver and the very milliners display little Dutch bonnets, fashioned like the quaint peaked caps worn by the good dames of old Amsterdam. Even Dutch furniture has become a craze, and fashionable shoppers are passing by the gorgeous empire styles, decorated with the laurel leaf, to buy the Dutch sofas and cabinets, curiously inlaid with rare woods and wrought with picturesque carving.

In far better taste is this Dutch furniture, fashioned, as it is, by hand to meet the domestic needs of a sincere, honest folk, than the empire furniture, with its bizarre ornamentations of gilded metal and its mock classic patterns, designed to suit a newly created aristocracy. If we could but bring back the simple domestic spirit of the Dutch with our Dutch fashions, it would settle many a social problem, but Dutch fashions as they now appear are as costly as the gilded fashions of Louis XV or the empire.

It has long been an established fact that one must pay most extravagantly for refined simplicity, so that Delft is often almost as costly as Dresden. There are pretty fruit baskets in Delft, "drug vases," low bedtime candlesticks, shoes and the most altogether delightful tiles imaginable, duplicating in pattern old tiles, some of which still exist in manor houses in old New York and near Albany. It is now possible to get almost all the new shapes in this modern Delft, as it is a wise European custom to save all designs used in the china factory.—New York Tribune.

MILTON AND GLADSTONE.

The British Statesman Challenges the Poet as a Translator of Horace.

This is Milton's rendering of Horace, book 1, ode 5 (Quis gratus Puero):

What slender youth, bedewed with liquid odors, Courts thee on roses in some pleasant cave, Pyrrha? Has golden hand's thou In wreaths thy golden hair.

Plain in thy neatness? Oh, how oft shall he On faith and changed gods complain, and seas Rough with black winds and storms Unwonted shall admire!

Who now enjoys thee credulous, all gold, Who always vacant, always amiable Hopes thee, of fluttering gales Unmindful. Happiest they To whom thou untraced seem'st fair! Me in my joy I Picture the sacred wall declares to have hung My dank and dropping weeds To the stern god of sea.

Mr. Gladstone, at the age of 85, thus renders these beautiful lines:

What scented stripling, Pyrrha, was thee now In pleasant grove, all with roses fair? For whom those autumn tresses blindest thou With simple care?

Full oft shall he be thine altered faith bewail, His altered gods, and his unwonted gaze Shall watch the waters darkening to the gale In wild amaze.

Who now believing floats on golden charms, Who hopes a thee ever void, and ever kind, Nor knows thy changeful heart nor the alarms Of changeful wind.

For me late Neptune's temple wall declare How safe escaped in votive offering, My dripping garments own, suspended there, My hymn can lang.

Jim Root Leaves the Stage.

Jim Root, the locomotive engineer whose heroism at Hinckley caused him to fall into the hands of a theatrical manager in New York city, has retired from the stage and is home again after playing a brief engagement at a salary of $500 per week.

"I don't like this acting business," he said. "It may be all right for young fellows, but I'm getting too old to start in acting. It keeps a man up too late nights, and I never did like a night run. The only thing that caught me was the salary, and I couldn't refuse that."

It is understood that Mr. Root will return to his vocation on the St. Paul and Duluth line.—St. Paul Globe.

THE COUNTY'S LAWMAKERS

ANNUAL SESSION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Buttonhole Bouquets and Remarks Thereon—Selecting Official Papers—A Thousand More Copies of the Proceedings—Ordered

GOSHEN, Nov. 23.—Mr. Patterson presented the members of the Board with buttonhole bouquets. Mr. Adams made a speech of most effusive gratitude and Mr. Neapass and the Chairman discoursed on flowers, Thanksgiving and kindred themes.

The Law Committee reported a number of certificates for purchasing road machines as correct.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the matter of selecting papers to publish the session laws, court terms and election notices was made a special order for Tuesday, Dec. 4th, at 2 p. m.

A draft to School Commissioner Rivenberg for $200 was ordered drawn for his expenses as commissioner.

The committee to apportion $6,440 between the city of Newburgh and town of New Windsor for bridges reported $5,664.50 as Newburgh's share and $775.50 as the share to be paid by New Windsor.

A number of Coroners' bills were reported "correct" by the committee and drafts were ordered drawn.

The matter of drafted men of the town of Woodbury, at the request of Mr. Patterson, was put over until Monday morning.

One thousand extra copies of the proceedings will be ordered. This was by resolution of Mr. Patterson, it having been ascertained by a roll call that the number already ordered will be insufficient.

After a discussion about the insurance of the county buildings the Board took a recess until Monday morning next at 11 a. m.

IN TRUE FRONTIER STYLE.

Two Robberies Committed at the Point of a Revolver in Port Jervis.

Port Jervis had an experience, Wednesday evening, similar to those which we read about in the frontier towns.

About 7 o'clock a stranger entered the Western Union telegraph office and pointing two revolvers at the head of John Duley, the operator, demanded his money, which was promptly handed over. He was then ordered to hand over the company's money, but as there was only some small change in the drawer he said it was enough to bother with. Then cautioning Duley to keep quiet he backed out of the room.

Five minutes later the man entered Stephen St. John's drug store and covering the clerk with his revolvers demanded the contents of the cash drawer. The clerk made a pretense of going to the drawer, but instead ran out the back door and gave the alarm, but before any one responded the man had helped himself to the money, at the same time keeping the muzzle of his revolver pointed at two customers who would gladly have left him in full possession if they had been permitted.

The news spread rapidly and soon the whole town was looking for the bold robber. His description was known but he managed to escape detection, although it was afterwards learned that he had lunched in a wagon near the scene of the robberies.

A Very Low Down Trick.

While the Sunday School of Shiloh Baptist Church, Newburgh, was holding an entertainment, Wednesday night, the members of an athletic club that occupies the basement of the building, set fire to a quantity of cayenne pepper and the pungent smoke soon drove the children from the room. Some of them were so overcome that they had to be carried home.

Flocks of Wild Pigeons.

Game Protector Kidd says that he saw a flock of about forty wild pigeons near Orange Lake, early in the fall, and a flock of 150 is reported as having been seen in Denning, Ulster county. Several flocks are also reported from Sullivan county, and there seems reason for the belief that these birds are returning to their old haunts.

Specimen Cases.

E. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Sdeaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, and the doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklin's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at McMonagle & Rogers Drug store.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

A Big Day's Business on the Goshen Line—Not Cars Enough to Carry the Crowds—A Breezy Ride in an Open Car.

The Traction Company did an enormous business, yesterday, but not so much as it would if there had been sufficient closed cars to accommodate the crowds that wanted to ride over the line between this city and Goshen.

Four cars were run regularly all day and they were literally packed full on every trip, and invariably left many people who could not even find standing room. The capacity of the closed cars as they were packed, yesterday, is eighty people each and they were always full.

In addition to the four cars run all day, Capt. Rockwell made two trips with an open car, using as a trailer one of the new cars which was hastily mounted on a pair of trucks. So anxious were the people to make the trip that they not only crowded the trailer full, but the open cars as well. On the two trips 759 passengers were carried and over 4,000 during the day.

The only mishap during the day was the derailing of car No. 1 at Ryerson's curve, which it is believed was caused by a stone on the track. There was a delay of only a few minutes.

FIRE AT SPRINGSIDE

The House on the Moore Farm Totally Destroyed.

The house on the old Moore farm a short distance the other side of Springville, in the town of Wawayanda, took fire about 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, and was totally destroyed, together with most of the contents.

The house is owned by W. M. Cole and occupied by a Mr. Talmadge.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue, and when discovered had made considerable progress. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and the flames spread so rapidly that the whole building was soon enveloped, and it was with difficulty any of the household goods were saved.

UP THE MIDLAND.

Schools Closed—Deer in Sullivan County—Digging Potatoes With a Crowbar.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

The three schools in the vicinity of Cocks Falls are closed on account of the prevalence of diphtheria there.

There is no use in trying to protect the deer in Sullivan county, for a year or two, and then taking the law off. The hunter of to-day, with a Winchester, Remington or Marlin rifle, when he gets a shot at a deer is almost sure to make him his meat. The guns of the early settlers were pretty good as far as they went, but they were slow coaches compared with those now in use. Tom Quirk's rifle is all right to place on exhibition at an agricultural fair, but to compare it or any of its fellows with our modern guns would be like pitting a loaded rat hole against a Winchester. The deer of Sullivan county must be protected or follow the noble Red Man of the forest to the happy hunting grounds.

A sight seldom to be seen up this way, was that of a farmer digging potatoes with a crowbar, last week. The frost had frozen the earth about an inch deep, and it was found easier to pry the crust off in that way than to dig them with a hoe. The owner was not a slouchy farmer by any means, but got behind with his work and was caught with the snow storm of Nov. 6th, and, as he himself expressed it, "it has been burned cold for Democrats ever since." Of course our Republican friends will laugh all over their face at the plight of their Democratic neighbor, but if my memory serves me right we have seen them in such a fix before. It was a Democratic house cleaning, that was all there was to it. The independent voter, with a pencil in his pocket is a power in the land.

RUSTICUS.

Opening an Electric Railroad.

The first electric car from Poughkeepsie was run to Wappinger's Falls, Wednesday. Its arrival in the village was the signal for a popular demonstration of delight. So anxious were the residents of Wappinger's Falls to have the road running by Thanksgiving Day that many of them turned out as volunteers with picks and shovels and aided in the work of track laying.

THE CHANCE OF LIFE.

A FUTURE FOR WOMEN'S EYES,

With the Hope That It May Do Some of Them Good.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

To-day there is the happy mother, healthy boys and girls, sunshine, music, amusement, the church, the romp and the tangle, the country and seashore. What ever healthfulness in healthy bodies may desire, that they may have, and mother is ever ready to join with them in the pleasure and fun.

Years come and go. The boys and girls grow up to men and women. Mother's hair is turning white, her steps are not so elastic, her spirits flag; there is an uneasy look in her dear eyes.

What can be the matter with mother?

She is approaching the most important crisis of her life, the change of life. Those watchful eyes detect the evidences. Years bring this change demanded by nature. What preparation have you made to carry the brave mother safely through it?

Within a comparatively short time the issue will be decided. Either nature fulfilling the law in proper, healthful manner, or—there is the wreck of a noble woman for you to grieve over.

There is salvation in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will carry the mother safely through the inevitable change in her physical life.

All reputable druggists keep for you this grand remedy. See that "mother" has it, for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was won from the heights of medical science by a woman for all women nearing the change of life.

KILLED ON THE O AND W

The Body of a Negro Tramp Found Along the Tracks at Little Britain.

The crew of the O. and W. Milk train found the body of a colored man lying along the track near Little Britain, yesterday morning, and brought it to this city. A hole in the back of the head indicated death by being struck by a train.

A paper in the pockets contained the name Dan Montgomery, and Capt. Grier recognized the body as that of a tramp who lodged in the lockup, Tuesday, and who gave the name "Mont" Durham, age forty-two, no home.

Coroner Decker has the body in charge.

Beld the Lucky Number.

Mr. T. A. Weller, whose number was 30, won the gun which was drawn for at the Commercial Hotel, Wednesday evening. A letter from W. O. Scobson, of Birmingham, England, the makers, states that the gun was made in 1877 and was sold for 42 pounds and 10 shillings, something over $200 of our money. It is regarded by local sportsmen as the best gun in the county.

Dyspepsia seldom causes death, but permits its victims to live on in misery. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
